FANFARRIA AMBULANTE

We are Fanfarria Ambulante, a scenic music quartet that fuses music, body expression and humour; mute characters and chatty instruments.

We grew up in Argentina, Brazil and France and we finally settled down in Santa Fe, Argentina, to mingle our musical suitcases. We found ourselves surrounded by mosquitoes and by cumbia and chamamé that have come along our sound landscape.

We first blossomed (in a fit of laughter) in the first Clown International Festival in Santa Fe, Argentina, called "Festiclown en Primavera" (Spring Festiclown) and since then we have participated in it every year.

From that moment on we have toured the streets, the parks and the playgrounds with our show "Música para jugar" (Music to play), which we have already performed more than 250 times in festivals, parties and special events.

In the year 2018 we released our first album called "Música para jugar", and a new staging was produced by Malena Bravo.

Our music is a crossroad of many different paths; we are a mixture of a Charlie Parker-like playful musician, a Balkan-lover engineer, a heated-beat Brazilian guy and a dreamy one from Santa Fe, which results in a strong Paraná-river-coastline made-in-Argentina identity.

Artistic Team:

Pablo Aristein (Arg.)	Baritone Sax
Martin Testoni (Arg.)	Soprano Sax
Fabrice Gautheron (Fr.)	Accordion
Ricardo Rosa (Br.)	Marching Drums
Malena Bravo (Arg.)	Mise-en-scène and acting direction

Música para jugar (2018) is Fanfarria Ambulante's first scenic-music creation.

Characters in black and white chatter in a cacophonous and colourful way.

Energy and humour are always present in Fanfarria Ambulante's music, happily mingling cocek with chamamé, cumbia with bagatela or milonga with an unbridled freylach.

Music that seems to be coming from the Far-East, Balkan sounds that rumble on South American rhythms and then are elegantly touched by Satie's veil.

This game is just an excuse for the four members in Fanfarria to have fun and share it with their audience. Watch out! Watch for your belongings, your pets and partners- the four artists will be kind but out of place, seductive but disgusting, they will make the public laugh but also cry.

Música para jugar tries to become that world in which eyes never age, as some grandmother once said.

And they all surely wear a hat, which cannot be taken from their heads!
